Between 1986 and 1998, the Museum of Vision teamed up with the Regional Oral History Office, University of California at Berkeley to create a series of oral history books.

The Museum of Vision is indebted to Sally Smith Hughes, PhD of UC Berkeley who conducted these oral history interviews.

UC Berkeley has electronic versions of the following books available free online:

Paul Boeder PhD: Teacher of Physiological Optics, 1992.

David Glendenning Cogan MD: The Howe Laboratory of Ophthalmology at Harvard Medical School, The Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, and The National Eye Institute, 1990.

Thomas David Duane MD: Wills Eye Hospital and Thomas Jefferson Medical College, 1989.

DuPont Guerry III MD: Ophthalmologist, Richmond, Virginia and the Medical College of Virginia, 1993.

Harold Glendon Scheie, MD: Ophthalmic Surgery and the Scheie Eye Institute, 1989.

Oral History Recollections of Past and Present Leaders including interviews with Frederick C. Blodi MD, John W. Henderson MD, H. Dunbar Hoskins, Jr. MD, Wendell L. Hughes MD, Clair M. Kos MD, W. Howard Morrison MD, David J. Noonan, Daniel Snydacker MD, Bruce E. Spivey MD, Bradley R. Straatsma MD, Stanley M. Truhlsen MD and Lawrence A. Zupan MD.